

I just want to express my opinion that I am against the cable or telephone companies gaining control of the internet services. We are located in what is considered a rural area and there is no way they can give the service that we now receive from our local ISP.

I will appreciate you giving this your serious consideration.